

Common go commands

- `go mod init <module-path>`
 - initialize go modules dependency management, creates a new module rooted at the current directory. A module's path is the prefix for package paths within the module.
- `go run <filename>`
 - compiles and run the program
- `go get <packages>`
 - downloads the packages named by the import paths, along with their dependencies